CLEANING AND CARE

IMPORTANT: It is critical to clean the Cold Brew Coffee Maker thoroughly after each use.

NOTE: The Lid, Handle, and Mesh filter/Infuser are dishwasher safe (TOP-RACK only). However, to avoid damage, we recommend handwash only.

IMPORTANT: DO NOT wash the Carafe in the dishwasher. Hand wash recommended. Do not wash with water with a temperature that exceeds 158°F / 70°C.

The taste of your coffee can be affected if the Carafe and the Mesh filter/Infuser are not thoroughly cleaned of all grounds, coffee oil residue, or dish soap between uses.

After each use, disassemble the Cold brew coffee maker per disassembling instructions, dispose of used coffee grounds from the Filter/Infuser, unscrew and remove the Filter/Infuser bottom cover, and wash all parts thoroughly with warm, soapy water. Rinse all parts well with cold water, and set aside to air dry or dry each part with a clean, dry, and soft kitchen towel.

COLD BREW TIPS

- We recommend using coarsely ground coffee for the smoothest and most delicious flavor extraction. Finely ground coffee can be used but depending on the grind, this may result in the release of fine particles in your brew. We encourage you to experiment with the grind level to discover what works best for you.
- Once prepared, the cold brew concentrate can be enjoyed by combining with a variety of ingredients from flavored syrups, milk, cream, ice cream, and mixers, to just ice or water (hot or cold).
- The SmoothBrew Maker can also be used to prepare cold-brewed tea. Use loose-leaf tea, or tea removed from tea bags to add to the Mesh Filter. Adjust the tea quantity and brew time according to your preference. Sugar-free tea can be stored in the refrigerator for up to 3-5 days.
- To prepare infused water, add your favorite chopped fruits to the Mesh Filter and allow them to marinate for 12-16 hours before serving. Store in the refrigerator for up to 3 days.
